Make Out With Me

Billy leaned in and kissed Steve Harrington. His lips were warm, surprisingly soft, and honestly it was one of the best things they had ever done yet. Kissing was simple and pure, while they'd done other things, it was still the best. Billy reached up and cupped Steve's cheek, getting a little more into it now--

"...um, guys?"

Shit. They pulled away from each other at lightning speed. But it was just Will. Steve gave the younger boy a little awkward smile. He had a feeling that he might've even liked boys too, so. No harm there.

But of course. Where Will was, the others were there too. It was never just that simple.

"Son of a bitch! STEVE!" Dustin said loudly. "We talked about this."

"Are you guys serious right now?" Lucas crossed his arms.

"You're a couple of sluts!" this was Mike. Well. Um. Okay.

Max rolled her eyes. "God, just get a room already."

However, the last person stayed silent for a moment. Then she spoke. With a genuine smile too.

"Bitchin'." said El.

And Billy smiled back.
